This is a www.TheLinuxReview.Com Document for the Linux Documentation Project.

The current version of the Consultants Guide is v8.0 and contains major changes. Specifically, all listings only contain basic information. If you would like to see detailed information about a particular consultant you will have to click on the associated link. There are over 1800 consultants in this list.

If you are reading this HOWTO on a connection that is 56K or less we strongly suggest you use the online search located at: http://www.TheLinuxReview.com/ldp/consultants.lxp

Also, iff you are not using a link capable format, such as postscript you may search for the consultant by name or city at http://www.TheLinuxReview.com.

Chapter 2. How can I help?

We will try to provide comprehensive coverage for all Linux Consultants. However, time is of the essence, and this document is not a revenue maker. We provide this information in the hope that it will be useful to both the Linux Community and to newly converted Linux users. We are always interested in feedback!

2.1. Adding/Managing your Consultants Guide entry

To manage or add a consultant entry, please point your web browser to http://www.TheLinuxReview.com/ and select Add or Edit under the Consultants panel.

2.1.1. Terms and Conditions

1. Command Prompt, Inc. will provide at zero cash cost a listing in the Linux Consultants Guide/Database to any Linux consultant.

2. Command Prompt, Inc. will continue world wide distribution of the document and related links (to the database) via the LDP and theLinuxReview.Com website.

3. Command Prompt, Inc. reserves the right to communicate with the listed consultants via email up to 12 (TWELVE) TIMES PER YEAR. The communication will always be about Open Source, or Command Prompt's products and services.

4. Command Prompt, Inc. will not sell your name or generate compiled lists for external companies.

If any of these conditions are unacceptable to companies listed in the database, send an email to support@commandprompt.com with your full company information and you will be removed from the database.

2.2. Assisting with the Consultants Guide

If you would like to assist with this document, there are several primary avenues that are extremely helpful.

- You can purchase Practical PostgreSQL from O'Reilly and Associates. This book was authored by the same people who bring you this resource. You may purchase this book from any major retailer.
- Provide a monetary contribution to the document. By contributing, you can even request what you would like to have updated, written, or expanded within the document. To provide a monetary contribution, please contact Command Prompt, Inc. You may also contact Joshua Drake.
- If you have written something that you would like to contribute, please email it to info@commandprompt.com
