Master Reference List

This Page Intentionally Left Blank

ARB is required make available to the public all information described in its notice of proposed regulatory action related, but not limited, to air emissions, public health impacts, and economic impacts before the comment period for the RES regulation begins. In meeting the requirement, ARB need not release proprietary, confidential, or otherwise legally protected business information. ARB may release information in an aggregated form, where necessary, to protect proprietary, confidential, or otherwise legally protected business information. This Appendix H sets out the sources of this information.
