AB 32

Environmental Justice Advisory Committee

March 21, 2013

California Environmental Protection Agency

Overview

- Background
- Reconvening the Environmental Justice Advisory Committee (EJAC)
- Proposed EJAC Members
- Recommendation

Background

- * AB 32 directed ARB to convene an Environmental Justice Advisory Committee (EJAC) to advise the Board in developing the 2008 Scoping Plan
 - ARB convened the EJAC in January 2007
 - EJAC provided recommendations on 2008 Scoping Plan
 - 2008 Scoping Plan approved by the Board on December 12, 2008 and re-approved on August 24, 2011

Reconvening the EJAC

- AB 32 directs ARB to update Scoping Plan at least once every five years
- Proposing to reconvene the EJAC to advise on the development of the 2013 Scoping Plan Update
 - Nominations solicited from Jan 22, 2013 March 1, 2013

Reconvening the EJAC

- Approach to Committee Meetings
 - Establish effective process with clear objectives
 - Provide ARB staff support
- Focus specifically on 2013 Scoping Plan Update, sectoral approaches, long-term goals, cobenefits, and disadvantaged communities

Reconvening the EJAC

- Total of nine eligible nominations
- Staff is recommending all nine individuals be appointed to serve on the EJAC

Proposed Members

- Martha Dina Argüello, Physicians for Social Responsibility
- Nicole Capretz, Environmental Health Coalition
- Gisele Fong, End Oil
- Susan Riggs Tinsky, San Diego Housing Federation
- * Tom Frantz, Association of Irritated Residents

Proposed Members

- * Kemba Shakur, Urban Releaf
- Mari Rose Taruc, Asian Pacific Environmental Network
- * Monica Wilson,
 Global Alliance for Incinerator Alternatives
- Ryan Briscoe Young, The Greenlining Institute

Recommendation

Staff recommends that the Board approve the proposed members of the Environmental Justice Advisory Committee