November 3rd Cap-and-Trade Program Compliance Processing and Planned Unavailability for CITSS

The Compliance Instrument Tracking System Service (CITSS) website at <https://www.wci-citss.org> is scheduled to be inaccessible to all users for approximately 2 hours on Monday, November 3, 2014, after the California Cap-and-Trade Regulation compliance deadline of 5:00 PM Pacific Time (PT) for scheduled compliance processing. CITSS will be made available to CITSS users again once compliance processing is complete.

Compliance Deadline:

For entities with a compliance obligation, to ensure you meet the Cap-and-Trade Program compliance requirements, the California Air Resources Board (ARB) recommends you complete all required compliance instrument transfers to your compliance account by 12:00 (noon) PT on Monday, November 3, 2014.

If you have any questions related to compliance, please contact Dave Kennedy at (916) 322-3935, or dkennedy@arb.ca.gov.

If you have general CITSS questions, please contact the CITSS Help Desk at 1-866-682-7561, or help@wci-citss.org.
