AB 32: California Global Warming Solutions Act of 2006

Public Meeting to Discuss Cap Setting in a California Cap-and-Trade Program

Topic and Purpose: The Air Resources Board (ARB) invites you to participate in the second public meeting on setting the emissions cap for the California cap-and-trade program. We held our first cap-setting meeting on April 28, 2009. ARB is examining how to set the emissions cap for each year from 2012 to 2020 so that emission reductions expected within the capped sectors will be both technologically feasible and cost-effective. This meeting will provide a forum to discuss issues relating to trends in historical emissions data, projections of future emissions levels, appropriate levels of allowance and offset limits. We will also discuss the relationship and interaction with the Western Climate Initiative.

The ARB's Scoping Plan established a path to meet the AB 32 goal of reducing statewide emissions to 1990 levels by 2020. The California cap-and-trade program, which is one component of the plan, will place a declining cap on approximately 85 percent of the State's greenhouse gas emissions. The emissions allowed under the cap-and-trade program, plus expected emissions from sources not included under the program's cap, must be no greater than the 2020 emissions goal outlined in the Scoping Plan to ensure that the statewide emissions target is met.

ARB staff will present illustrative cap levels at this meeting to describe the relationships between the compliance instruments (allowances and offsets) expected in the cap-and-trade system and recent past levels of emissions. In addition, staff will discuss the relationship between the calculation of surrender obligation for transportation fuels and the level of the cap.

ARB staff will be accepting public comment on this topic during and after the meeting and requests that comments be provided no later than December 14, 2009.
