

Presentation Title: Perspectives and Successes in Mitigating Methane Emissions from Energy Pipelines

Abstract Statement: The presentation will cover PHMSA's current focus on mitigating methane releases via its integrity management programs, summarize related actions, introduce our new focus toward underground gas storage and our coordination with federal/state agencies and will illustrate our investment/successes to date with research supporting technology solutions to both better detect leaks and measure flow rates.