

Subject: Early Action Item

From: Ken Mayes <kenmayes@comcast.net>

Date: Fri, 14 Sep 2007 17:41:58 -0700

To: ccplan@arb.ca.gov

Gentlemen...attached is a suggestion to make mass transit as energy efficient as new vehicles under the pending Pavley bill. Mass transit uses massive amounts of energy relative to the proposed specs for new automobiles. In most cases, the power and fossil fuel per rider per mile travels is orders of magnitude higher than a single rider in a Prius. In addition to the direct energy profile, the mass transit infrastructure uses massive amounts of power in support of the direct movement of people.

KENNETH W. MAYES JR.

Email: kenmayes@comcast.net

Tel: 916-575-7553

Mass Transit Energy Efficiency Standard.doc	Content-Type: application/msword Content-Encoding: base64
--	--