

CONFIDENTIALITY OVERVIEW

Confidential Information

The Air Resources Board (ARB) will treat ALL information that you provide in this survey as confidential so long as it meets the requirements of State law. Title 17, California Code of Regulations (CCR) Section 91000 through 91100 (Attachment B) describes the handling of Confidential Information. We also request that you review and complete the Confidential Information Submittal Form and submit a copy of it with your completed survey. Finally, for your protection, each section of the survey form has a box to check to indicate that the information on that section is confidential. The ARB takes measures to ensure that all confidential information remains confidential pursuant to Title 17, CCR.
