2014 Survey Overview

Survey Purpose and Rationale

- The 2014 Architectural Coatings Survey is largely based on 2005 survey
- Information collected is used to help the ARB and air districts track volatile organic compound (VOC) emissions from these coatings
- Survey results may be used in the development of regulations to reduce VOC emissions from architectural coatings

Who Must Complete the Survey

- Manufacturers, Importers, and Wholesalers of Architectural Coatings
- Reasons not to report
 - No California sales in 2013
 - Someone else is reporting for you
- If not reporting, complete “Reasons for not Completing the Survey” form <http://www.arb.ca.gov/coatings/arch/survey/2014/2014survey.htm>

What is New in the 2014 Survey

- Survey conducted electronically
- Product labels required, except for Flat Coatings
- Data on colorants is required
- Collection of polymer and paraffin content for floor coating, concrete/masonry sealers, and waterproofing concrete/masonry sealers
- Addition of category codes to align with categories in the 2007 SCM
- Addition of category code to capture data on Air and Water Resistive Barrier Coatings

Recent Activity

- Draft 2014 Survey and Architectural Coatings Reporting Tool (ACRT) released mid-October
- Webinar on ACRT Beta version on October 23, 2014
- December 1, 2014: Final ACRT released; start of 2014 Survey period
