

CIVIL RIGHTS POLICY
and
DISCRIMINATION COMPLAINT PROCESS

POLICY STATEMENT

It is the California Air Resources Board (CARB) policy to provide fair and equal access to the benefits of a program or activity administered by CARB. CARB will not tolerate discrimination against any person(s) seeking to participate in, or receive the benefits of, any program or activity offered or conducted by CARB. Members of the public who believe they were unlawfully denied full and equal access to an CARB program or activity may file a civil rights complaint with CARB under this policy. This non-discrimination policy also applies to people or entities, including contractors, subcontractors, or grantees that CARB utilizes to provide benefits and services to members of the public.

Questions regarding this policy should be directed to CARB's Civil Rights Officer at (916) 323-7053.

DEFINITIONS

Complainant: Individual(s) or other interested parties filing a civil rights complaint under this policy.

Discrimination: The unlawful denial of fair and equal access to a program or activity offered, conducted, or administered by CARB based on a protected class. "Denial of Fair and Equal Access" includes:

- (i) The denial of any program benefit.
- (ii) Providing a different level of benefits than provided to other program users.
- (iii) Restricting the benefit or advantage of any program in a manner dissimilar to restrictions placed on other program users without a protected characteristic.
- (iv) Subjecting a person to segregation or separate treatment related to receiving the benefits of the program.
- (v) Denial to any person, or group of people, the opportunity to participate as a member of any planning or advisory body otherwise open to the public in some fashion and,
- (vi) Using criteria or methods of administering its program with the effect of discriminating against a user, or potential user, of the program offered by CARB.

Protected class: A characteristic of a person which cannot be targeted for discrimination including race, national origin, ethnic group identification, ancestry, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, color, genetic information, medical condition, or mental or physical disability.

RESPONSIBILITY

CARB's Executive Officer will have final authority and responsibility for compliance with this policy.

CARB's Civil Rights Officer, on behalf of the Executive Officer, will coordinate this policy's implementation within CARB, including work with the Ombudsman's Office, Office of Communications, and the staff and managers within a program or activity offered by CARB. The Civil Rights Officer coordinates compliance efforts, receives inquiries concerning non-discrimination requirements, and ensures CARB is complying with state and federal reporting and record retention requirements, including those required by Code of Federal Regulations, title 40, section 7.10 et seq.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

A Civil rights complaint may be filed against CARB or other people or entities affiliated with CARB, including contractors, subcontractors or grantees that CARB utilizes to provide benefits and services to members of the public. The complainant must file his or her complaint within one year of the alleged discrimination. This one-year time limit may be extended up to, but no more than, an additional 90 days if the complainant first obtained knowledge of the facts of the alleged violation after the expiration of the one-year time limit.

The complaint must provide in writing:

- (i) The complainant's current contact information, including telephone number and address. The complainant must inform CARB's Civil Rights Officer of any changes to this information during CARB's review process through resolution of the complaint with CARB.
- (ii) A detailed description of the alleged act(s) the complainant believes is discriminatory. CARB's Civil Rights Officer, or a person directed by the Civil Rights Officer, may need to follow up for additional information.
- (iii) The protected class of the person, group, or people subjected to the alleged discrimination.
- (iv) The identity of the person or people who committed the alleged discriminatory act.

The Civil Rights Officer, or a person directed by the Civil Rights Officer, will conduct a prompt, neutral, and thorough investigation into the allegations. CARB does not waive any statute of limitations that may apply as CARB works with the complainant to resolve the complaint. CARB recommends that the complainant consult with an attorney to ensure any statutory time constraints necessary to pursue any legal remedies available to the complainant outside of CARB's process for addressing complaints of discrimination are met.

The Civil Rights Officer will review the facts presented and collected and reach a determination on the merits of the complaint based on a preponderance of the evidence. The Civil Rights Officer will inform the complainant in writing when CARB has reached a determination on the merits of the discrimination complaint.

Where the complainant has articulated facts that do not appear discriminatory but warrants further review, the Civil Rights Officer, in his or her discretion, may forward the complaint to a party within CARB for action. The Civil Rights Officer will inform the complainant, either verbally or in writing, before facilitating the transfer.

CONFIDENTIALITY

CARB strives to protect the confidentiality of the complainant and all participants in the civil rights complaint process to the greatest extent possible and as authorized by law. The nature of this process does not permit absolute confidentiality. The Civil Rights Officer may release information as necessary to resolve this complaint. If a remedial action results in employee discipline, the Civil Rights Officer may release information provided during the complaint process to appropriate CARB personnel and outside parties including the State Personnel Board.

RETALIATION PROHIBITED

CARB will not tolerate retaliation against a complainant or a participant in the complaint process. Anyone who believes that they have been subject to retaliation in violation of this policy may file a complaint of retaliation with CARB following the procedures outlined in this policy.

COMPLAINT FORM

To initiate a complaint, the complainant must complete CARB's Civil Rights Complaint Form and send it to CARB's Civil Rights Officer within the time period discussed above. Send the complaint form to CARB's Civil Rights Officer located at 1001 I Street, Sacramento, CA 95814.
