Subject: Please maintain stricter efficiency standards for automobiles

Comment:

Given California's large population and weather patterns, air quality is often at levels that are dangerous to humans and animals.

I'm disappointed that the US EPA has retreated from its January 13, 2017 Final Determination on LEV III. I support CARB's "deemed to comply" option which maintains the stricter fuel efficiency standards.

Thank you,

Sudhanshu Jain

Comment:

I was raised in Los Gatos in west Santa Clara County in the 1940s and 1950s and recall the dense smog days when even Mt. Umunhum was obscured from view from just the northwest side of town -- due to primarily vehicle exhausts and unregulated emissions. This is one of the greatest issues of our time, affection the health (and related health-care costs) of millions of Californians, young, old and in between. Please fight hard!!! Jay

Comment:

This looks like a letter requesting support for retaining the existing enhanced standards for 2022 and 2025. If that is the case, are you expecting having many people put their comments in? Are there strategies that you view will be effective against the US EPA? Is having leading environmental groups supporting this of help?

Please advise on the best way to help CARB win this one.

Thanks
