

09-10-8

Hello Chairwoman Nichols and board members,

My name is Jennifer Gonzales. I am a student at Mandela High School. Although I do not have asthma, the connection between diesel pollution and asthma in my community is very real. Reducing diesel pollution is a good thing for my community because it can help us to not get asthma and the people who have asthma would not have as many asthma attacks. It's a way to make the air that we breathe clean.

Thank You.