

July 3, 2007

California Air Resources Board
Diesel Construction Equipment

To whom it may concern,

I think your new rules for diesel construction equipment are too harsh. It will run everyone out of California (contractors and workers). State and local taxes will have to be raised to compensate for all of the lost contractor revenues. These new rules would be a bunch of bull. Please consider other options.

Kuth Bing
981 Via Fedora
Santa Maria, CA 93454

