TOPIC: PUBLIC WORKGROUP MEETING TO DISCUSS THE DEVELOPMENT OF A REGULATION TO REDUCE EMISSIONS FROM HEAVY-DUTY DIESEL-POWERED TRUCKS IN PORT SERVICE

As part of the California Air Resources Board's (ARB) goods movement strategy, ARB staff is in the process of developing a control measure to reduce emissions from diesel trucks in port service. An essential component of the developmental process is public consultation and discussion with interested stakeholders. As such, ARB staff invites you to participate in the second of a series of public workgroup meetings to discuss the development of a control measure. The public workgroup meeting will be held at the time and location shown below:

Date: Tuesday, January 9, 2007
Time: 1:00pm to 3:00pm
Location: Port of Long Beach
5th Floor Training Room
925 Harbor Plaza
Long Beach, California 90802

Additionally, staff developed a website and list serves to help stakeholders keep abreast of regulatory developments, future meetings, and timelines. Please visit our website at <http://www.arb.ca.gov/msprog/onroad/porttruck/porttruck.htm> for additional information and to join our list serve.

As a result of ARB's continuing effort to increase accessibility and public participation, the workgroup meeting will also be available via audio-conference. To obtain the meeting call-in number and passcode prior to January 9th, please contact Mike Sutherland at (916) 327-5609 or via email at msutherl@arb.ca.gov. On January 9th, the meeting call-in number and passcode will be available on our website at <http://www.arb.ca.gov/msprog/onroad/porttruck/porttruck.htm>

The energy challenge facing California is real. Every Californian needs to take immediate action to reduce energy consumption. For a list of simple ways you can reduce demand and cut your energy costs, see our website: <http://www.arb.ca.gov>.
