PUBLIC MEETING NOTICE

Staff of the California Air Resources Board and the San Joaquin Valley Air Pollution Control District invite you to attend a Technical Symposium to discuss the scientific basis of the air quality modeling being conducted for the San Joaquin Valley 2012 PM2.5 State Implementation Plan (SIP). The symposium will provide you with an overview of the PM2.5 problem in the San Joaquin Valley, an opportunity to learn about the findings from past modeling exercises, as well as the technical approach being used for the Valley's 2012 PM2.5 SIP modeling. Please see the symposium agenda at the end of this notice.

Date: Friday, April 27, 2012
Time: 10:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
Place: San Joaquin Valley Air Pollution Control District
1990 E. Gettysburg Avenue
Fresno, California 93726

Or Via Videoconference (2 Locations)

District Northern Region Office,
4800 Enterprise Way
Modesto, California 95356

District Southern Region Office
34946 Flyover Court
Bakersfield, California 93308

The symposium will also be available via webcast at www.valleyair.org/workshops/public_workshops_idx.htm

We welcome your participation in this effort. If you have any questions about the workshop, please contact Sylvia Zulawnick, Manager, Particulate Matter Analysis Section, Air Quality Data Branch, at (916) 324-7163 or szulawni@arb.ca.gov.

If you require special accommodations or need this document in an alternative format (i.e. Braille, large print) or another language, please contact Sylvia Zulawnick as soon as possible before the scheduled event/meeting. TTY/TDD/Speech to Speech users may dial 711 for the California Relay Service.

The energy challenge facing California is real. Every Californian needs to take immediate action to reduce energy consumption. For a list of simple ways you can reduce demand and cut your energy costs, see our website: <http://www.arb.ca.gov>.
