

Nominate Your Clean Air Hero for 2016!

HAAGEN-SMIT
CLEAN AIR AWARDS

Open call for nominations accepted through December 1st, 2016.

The California Air Resources Board is looking for candidates who have made significant lifetime contributions toward improving air quality and climate change science to receive the prestigious Haagen-Smit Clean Air Award.

Categories for the award program include science, research, technology advancements, policy, and public education and outreach. International nominations are welcome.

Congratulations to the winners of the 2015 Haagen-Smit Clean Air Award!

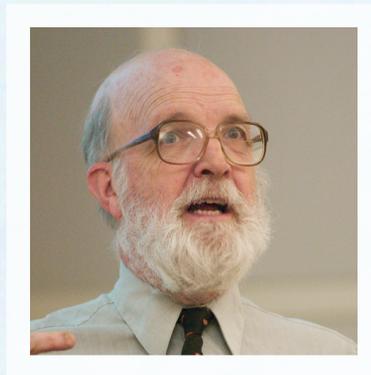

Jiming Hao, Ph.D.

Tsinghua University, China
International Air Pollution Control

Michael Prather, Ph.D.

University of California, Irvine
Climate Change Research

Donald Stedman, Ph.D.

University of Denver
Emission Control Technologies

Kimberly Prather, Ph.D.

University of California, San Diego
Atmospheric Chemistry Research

Other past Clean Air Award winners include:

- Air Pollution Science and Research
Barbara Finlayson-Pitts (UC Riverside), Donald Blake (UC Irvine), Roger Atkinson (UC Riverside), Janet Arey (UC Riverside), James Hansen (NASA)
- Environmental Health and Public Education
Andrea Hricko (USC), John Froines (UC Los Angeles), John Peters (USC and UC Los Angeles)
- Environmental Policy
Margo Oge (US EPA), Joan Denton (OEHHA), Senator Fran Pavley

For more information and a nomination form visit our website www.arb.ca.gov/hsawards or contact Heather Choi at (916) 322-3893 or heather.choi@arb.ca.gov.

California Environmental Protection Agency

 Air Resources Board