

Agenda

Workgroup Meeting to Discuss “Weekend Effect” Research

October 23, 2001
9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.
Air Resources Board
Conference Room 550
Cal/EPA Headquarters Building
1001 I Street
Sacramento, California

- |      |   |                      |
|------|---|----------------------|
| I.   | Welcome and Introductions   | 9:30                 |
| II.  | CRC/NREL Sponsored Research   |                      |
|      | CRC Proximate Modeling: Initial Resultsfor the NO <sub>x</sub> Reduction and Timing Hypotheses– Greg Yarwood, ENVIRON     | 9:45                 |
|      | Short Break  | 10:45 - 11:00 |
|      | NREL WE/WD Ozone Study - Phase 2 Results– Eric Fujita, DRI  | 11:00                |
|      | Update on weekend/weekday emissions activity research– Lyle Chinkin/Dana Coe/Hilary Main, STI                                 | 11:45                |
|      | Lunch  | 12:30 - 13:00 |
|      | PM Nitrate– Charlie Blanchard, Envair   | 13:00                |
| III. | Future Work   |                      |
|      | Status of ARB report on the WE Effect – Leon Dolislager   | 13:45                |
|      | Status of ARB contracts for WD/WE activity – Leon Dolislager  | 13:50                |
|      | General planning discussion for fall 2002 WE PM-NO <sub>3</sub> study-- all (Doug Lawson, NREL, introducing w/ current scope) | 13:55                |
| V.   | Next Meeting Date & Adjourn   | 14:30                |

For those who are interested, a planning meeting for the STI micro- and macro-scale activity projects (summer 2002) for ARB is scheduled after the Workgroup meeting.

Planning meeting for ARB activity contracts scheduled for 2002 14:45 – 15:45