4. The browser will redirect you to the CARB Online Training Portal. Click the course name link, and now you are at the online course page. (To see all available online courses, click the "All courses" button at the bottom of this page)

Welcome to the California Air Resources Board Online Training Portal

If you have already enrolled in an online training class, select it on this page. You may have to enter the class "enrollment key" to access the course.

If you do not have a training account, please following the instructions here and create an account in the MyARBTraining System.

To see all available courses on this page, please click the "All courses" button at the bottom of this page.

(FYI, we know how to spell enrollment. Moodle, the software for this Portal, was created in Australia, where they spell "enroll" as "enrol".)

If you have questions or concerns, please contact registrar at arbtrain@arb.ca.gov or (916) 322-3937.

- Course 190: Air Academy Online Training (AAOT) - Online Only
Teacher: Arthur Lee

This online training is available to all ARB staff and the public. Although it is intended as orientation for new employees at ARB, anyone who wants to learn more about ARB and air pollution control is welcome to take this online course. It takes about 10 hours to complete. For most effectiveness, view it where you will not be disturbed and break it up into 1-2 hour blocks over a period of days.
You must register before taking this course.
